

Consolidation and Decommission Services

During any stage of the business cycle, northAmerican® Commercial is here to help. Our services allow businesses to be nimble when it comes to facilities and assets. If your company needs to shift assets or take facilities offline, let us manage every aspect of the process. There is no subcontracting involved, which means you get outstanding quality control, first-rate security and unmatched savings by eliminating the middleman.

Here's a look at a few of our services:

- Donate, sell, recycle, refurbish, auction and dispose (environmentally responsible methods)
- Re-purposing of equipment through a web-based platform to order and track
- Vendor coordination for equipment that needs servicing and vendor support for its relocation
- Shredding
- IT Destruction
- Warehouse and asset management
- Terminal cleaning services to prepare old facility for decommissioning
- State mandated certifications for decommissioning with all documentation
- Removal of all items for decommissioning such as batteries, sanitizers, biohazards etc., with process control through an online software platform

All of this can be easily managed and tracked in our patent-pending online platform. Our technology lets you measure your carbon footprint, so you can do what's best for the environment while being a good steward of company dollars.
